

AHMED AND THE MOON GODDESS

Ahmed was a curious boy with the biggest imagination.

One night, he was searching through some old books and found a dusty, ancient tale about a mysterious Moon Goddess named Selene.

The tale said that anyone brave enough to visit the moon could unlock magical powers!

The story told of amazing adventures and magical moon creatures! But most of all, it said that Selene was waiting for a brave soul to visit her.

“I’ll be that brave soul!” Ahmed whispered. But how? He needed a plan—a rocket!

Ahmed spent days designing his rocket. He gathered everything he could find in the backyard: old boxes
cans, even bits of metal!

Finally, after weeks of hard work, his rocket
was ready!

He packed some of his most favorite snacks, a flashlight, and the inspirational book about Selene.

he said, climbing into his fabulous rocker.

With the push of a big green button,
the engines roared to life, and his
rocket zoomed into the night sky!

Stars and planets flew by as Ahmed's heart raced with excitement. He was actually going to the moon!

Suddenly, the rocker began to shake! Ahmed
looked out the window—oh no!
A meteor shower was coming his way!
“Hold on tight, Dreamer!”
*he shouted, zigzagging his way through.
Soon, they were back in clear space.*

Finally,
Ahmed
reached the moon.

He landed his rocker with a thud and stepped into the soft, glowing moon dust.

"I made it,"
he whispered, amazed. But wait-the ground was starring to glimmer and shake!

Out of nowhere, tall, glowing MOON
creatures appeared! They had big, starry eyes.

“Who are you?”

Ahmed asked.

“We are the Moon Keepers, protectors of Selene’s magic,”
they replied.

“The Moon Goddess
is Waiting for you, but you must solve the Moon Riddle first.”

Ahmed stood tall.

“I’m ready”

he said with a big grin.

The Moon Keepers
painted to a faraway center

You must find the hidden moonstone buried deep in the Sea of Wonder.
Only then can you meet Selene.

The Sea of Wonder wasn't water—it was a sparkling desert of moon crystals! Ahmed made his way through shiny dunes and avoided tricky traps. When he almost gave up, he saw a glowing moonstone in the distance!

Ahmed ran towards the glowing stone, but the ground began to shake again! The moon cracked open, and a giant serpent slithered out!

“You can’t pass without solving this final riddle,” it hissed.

Ahmed's heart was racing, but he took a deep-deep breath and said, "I'm ready."

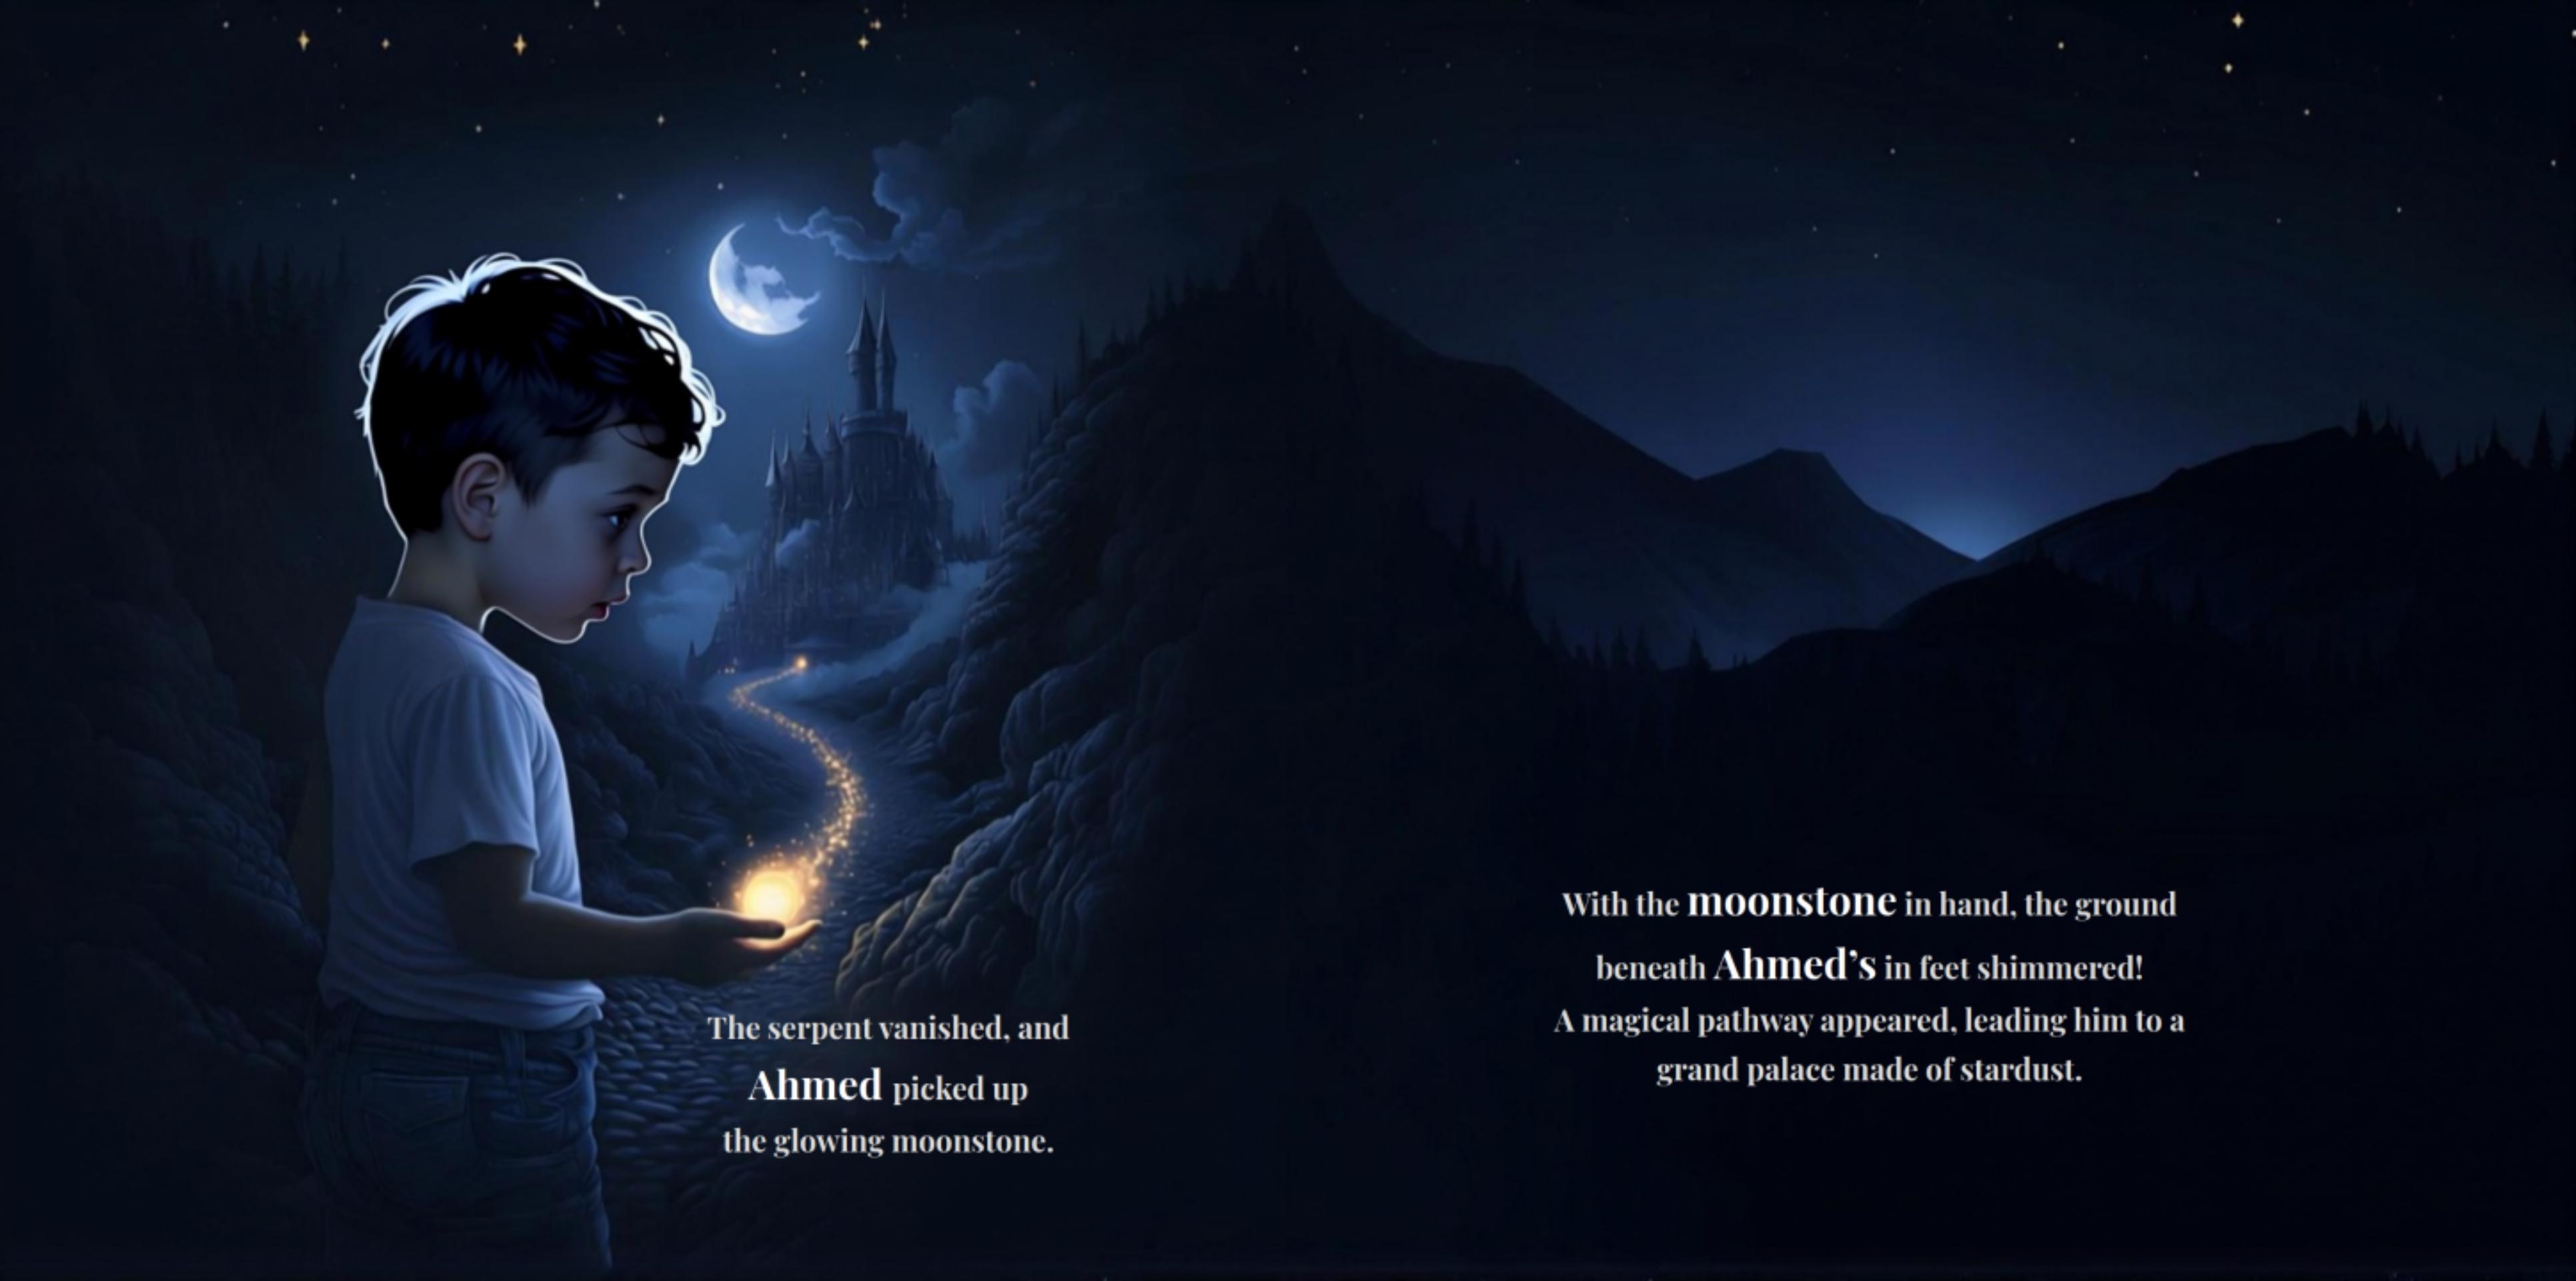

The serpent smiled and asked the riddle:

"I am always above you but never in sight,
I dance in the dark and disappear with the light.

What am I?"

Ahmed thought hard...
then smiled. "The stars!"

The serpent vanished, and Ahmed picked up
the glowing moonstone.

With the moonstone in hand, the ground
beneath Ahmed's feet shimmered!
A magical pathway appeared, leading him to a grand palace made of stardust.

The doors opened, and inside
was Selene, the Moon Goddess herself!

“You are truly brave,
Ahmed
she said, her voice kind.

“For that, you’ve unlocked the
moon’s greatest magic.”

Selene handed
Ahmed a silver
charm shaped like the moon.

“Keep this close, and you’ll always have the courage to follow your dreams!”

Ahmed

thanked Selene and climbed back into his rocket,
holding the moonstone and
charny tight.

When he landed safely at home, he looked up at the MOON and smiled. He knew his adventure wasn't over—it was only the beginning!
