

Princess Name

we've been waiting for you

One peaceful morning,
Princess [Name]
stood on her castle balcony.
From far beyond the hills,
the Enchanted Forest
shimmered.

Inside her room,
Princess [Name]
opened a carved wooden box.

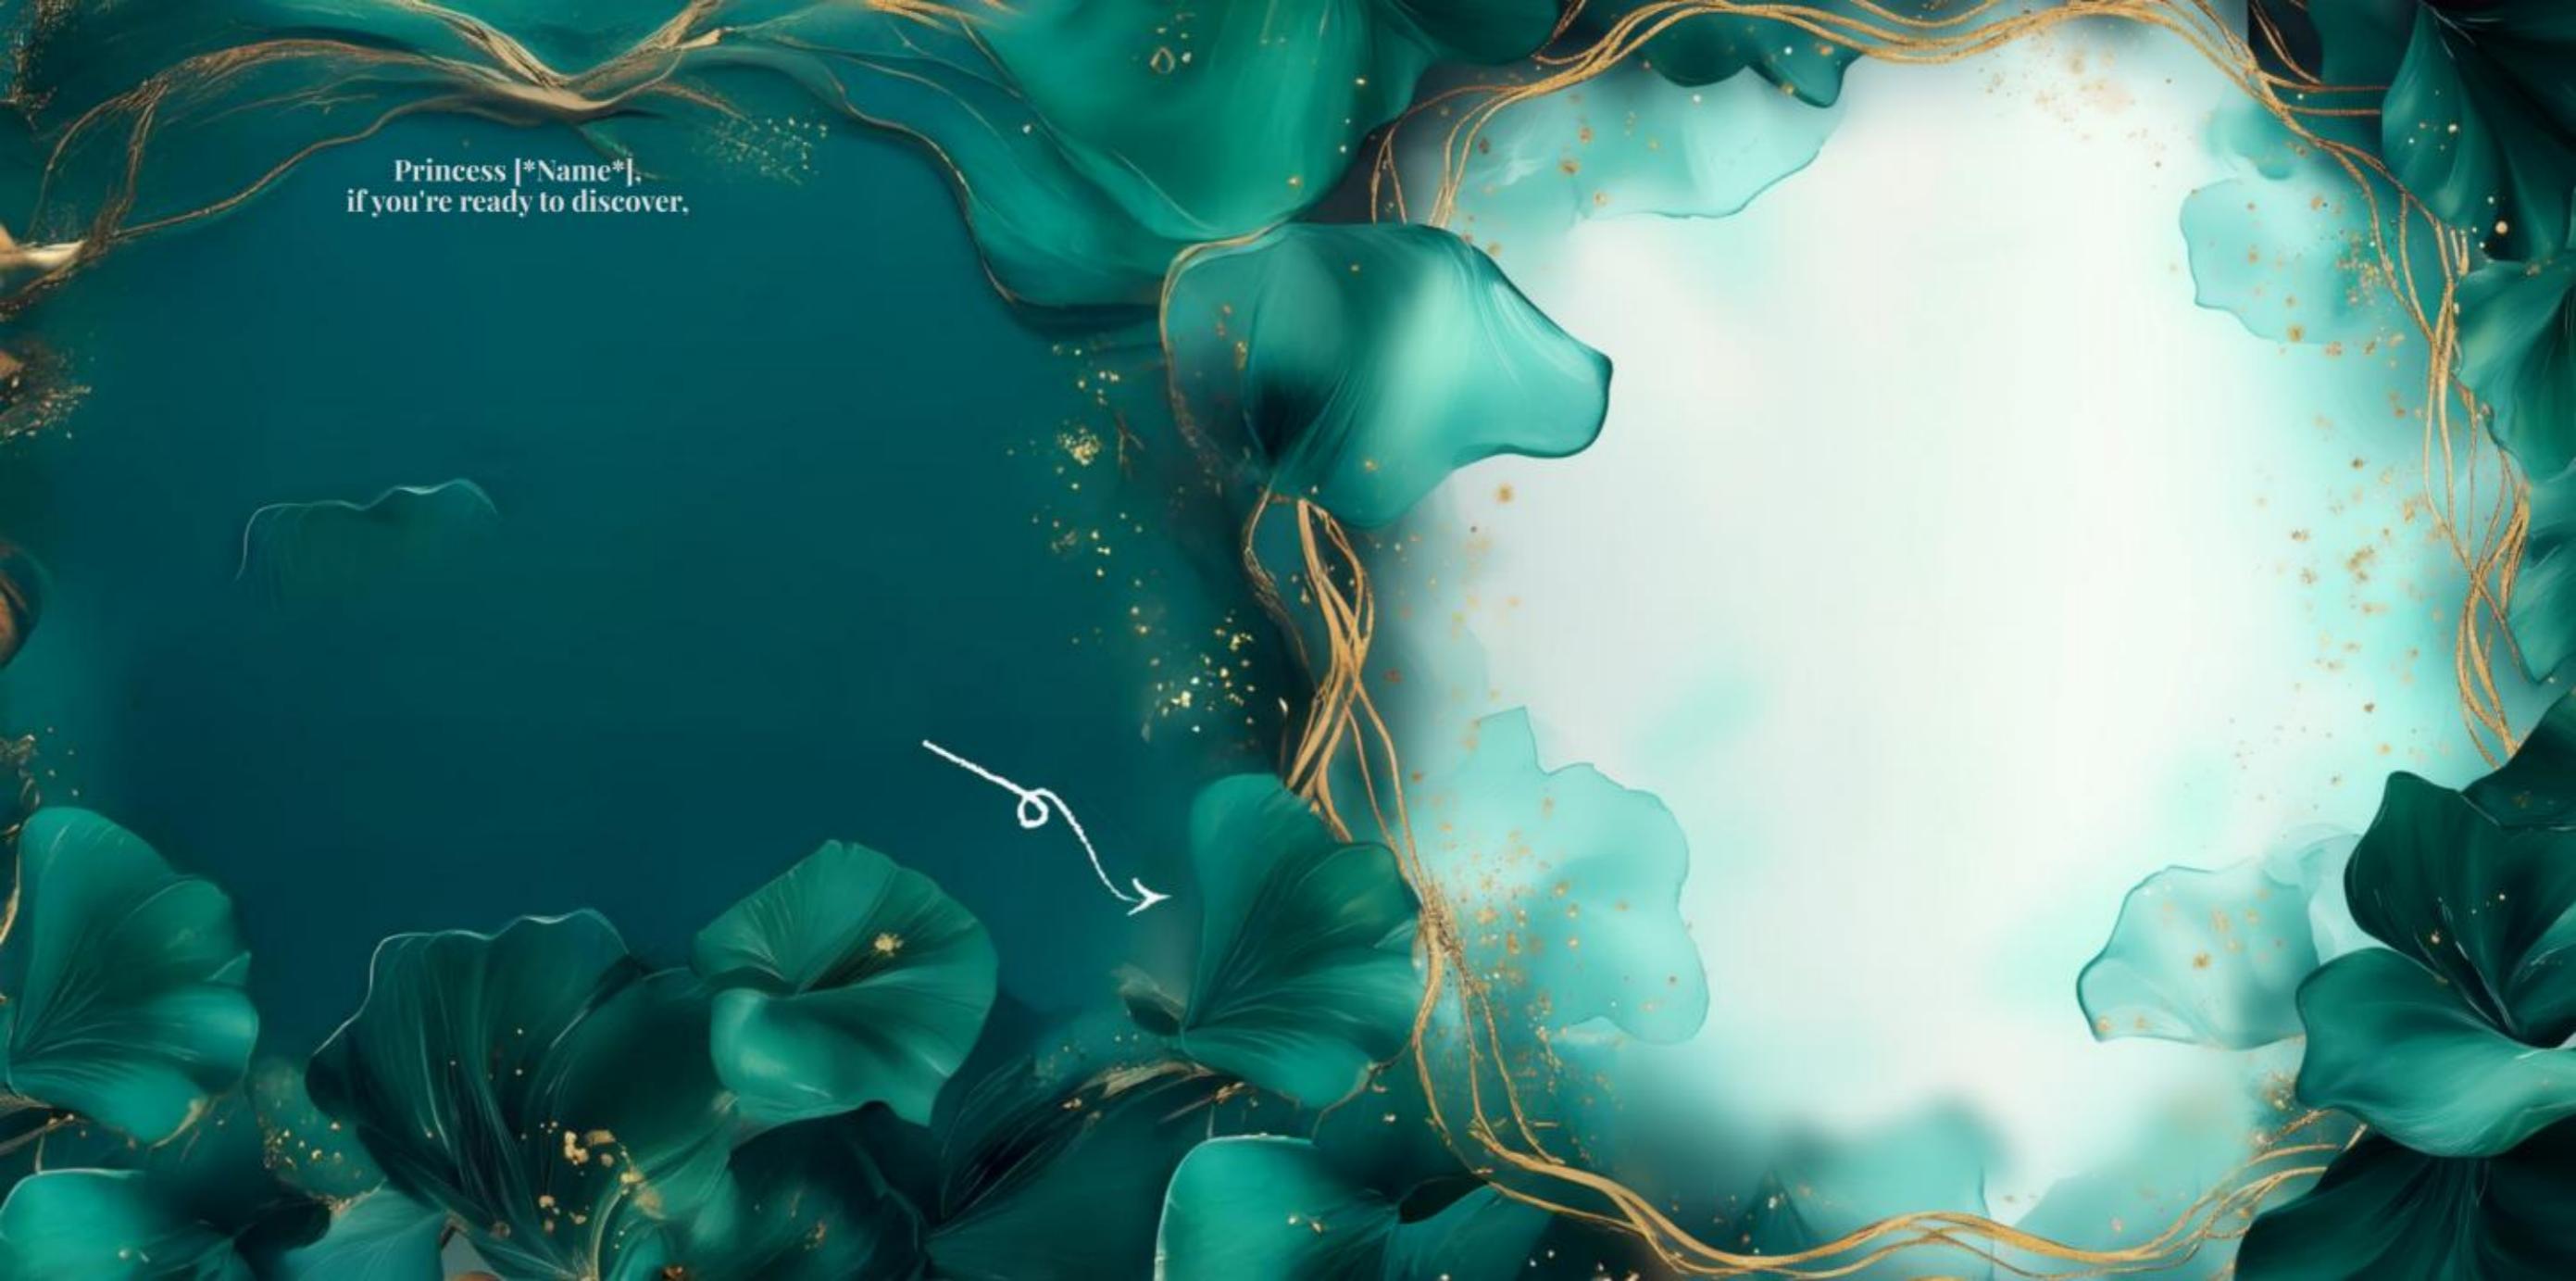

Guided by a glowing butterfly,
Princess [Name]
followed a winding path.

At the edge of the forest,
Princess [Name]

Princess [Name],
if you're ready to discover,

As the forest door creaked open,

Suddenly, a fox appeared.

Princess [Name]

"Thank you."

Princess [Name]

The glowing key began to shine brighter.

Inside the cave, Princess [Name] found the Moonstone.

The moment she touched the Moonstone, the shadows vanished.

The wolves howled in joy.

A young girl with brown hair tied back, wearing a green short-sleeved dress and a blue hooded cloak, sits on a large tree root in a lush green forest. She is holding a small green plant in her hands. In the background, there is a wooden door set into a tree trunk, with a glowing yellow flower emblem on it. The scene is bathed in warm sunlight filtering through the trees.

Princess [Name]

She leaned down and peeked inside.

You are now the Guardian of the Forest.

With the book in her arms, Princess [Name] walked home.

A vibrant, painterly illustration of a magical forest. Sunlight filters down from the top through the canopy of tall, slender trees, casting bright rays of light onto the forest floor. The ground is covered in lush green grass and scattered with numerous small, glowing blue flowers that appear to be glowing with a soft light. In the background, more trees stand in a dense forest, their trunks dark and silhouetted against the bright light.

The adventure continues...
